

WINE SPECTATOR 31 Octobre 2013

BUYING GUIDE

New wines from around the world

FRANCE

90 MURÉ Gewurztraminer Alsace Signature 2012

Creamy and refined in texture, with well knit layers of apricot tart, orange granita, candied pink grapefruit zest and almond, featuring a skein of ground spice and mouthwatering acidity. Drink now through 2020.

91 MURÉ Pinot Gris Alsace Signature 2011

Finely knit layers of dried apricot, kumquat, beeswax, and chamomile mix with delicate acidity and a vein of saline minerality in this elegant, deftly meshed white. Lightly smoky, with a lasting finish. Drink now through 2021.-AN

92 MURÉ Riesling Alsace Grand Cru Clos Saint Landelin 2011

Firm and well cut, with a spicy minerality driving flavors of yellow plum, pear, slivered almond, fleur de sel, and ground ginger. A waft of orchard blossom lingers on the lasting, refined finish. Drink now through 2023.-AN

90 MURÉ Riesling Alsace Signature 2011

Plump and juicy, this is well balanced by firm acidity, offering flavors of ripe pear and white peach, lemon zest and stone, with a hint of almond financier. Light on its feet and easy to like. Drink now through 2020.-AN