

WINE ENTHUSIAST BUYING GUIDE

94 MURÉ Riesling 2010 Clos Saint Landelin

So intense and concentrated, this wine epitomizes the essence of Riesling. Steely, tight, very nervy, and bone dry, it is packed with flavors of citrus, orange zest, grapefruit, and green apple skins. The texture of this young wine is beautifully crisp. Drink from 2016. Editor's choice.-RV

94 MURÉ Riesling 2011 Clos Saint Landelin

 Cellar Selection

A beautifully fragrant wine, with full berry fruits and a floral character. The wine is given backbone by the structure and deliciously pure acidity. It's a wine for serious aging, still very young. Drink from 2017. -RV

94 MURÉ Gewurztraminer 2007 Clos Saint Landelin Vendanges Tardives

Although certainly sweet, this wine is much more than that. Alongside the honey and syrup flavors are intensely bright pineapple flavors and lively acidity. It's the balance of this wine that is so impressive, with all the elements properly in place. Drink now and until 2020.-RV

93 MURÉ Gewurztraminer 2011 Clos Saint Landelin

This is a very fine wine with sweetness tempered with a great sense of structure and concentration. Lychees dominate the fruit profile but are supplemented with pineapple and pomelo flavors that are sprinkled with pepper. It is rich and full in the mouth. It needs some more time to age, so drink from 2016. Robert Kacher Selections.-RV

94 MURÉ Gewurztraminer 2011 Clos Saint Landelin Vendanges Tardives

Gold in colour, this sweet, spicy wine is full of ripe, opulent fruits and textures. Very honeyed, it exudes richness from the apricot and spiced orange fruits. It is delicious now, but will be so much better, so drink until 2022. -RV
