

WINE SPECTATOR INSIDER October 24th 2018

A FIRST LOOK AT OUR EDITOR'S MOST EXCITING NEW WINES By Marvin R. Shanken (editor and publisher)

93 MURÉ Riesling Alsace Côte de Rouffach 2016

Beautifully aromatic, featuring lots of mineral and honey on the nose and palate, along with flavors of poached quince, sliced almond, star fruit and fleur de sel. Statuesque and framed by firm acidity, this is light-to medium-bodied, with a intense, mineral-driven finish. Drink now through 2030. A.N