

WINE SPECTATOR - 25 Octobre 2018

6 ALSACE ESSENTIALS FOR FRENCH WINE LOVERS

New reviews of Riesling, Pinot Gris and Gewürztraminer up to 92 points

---

90 MURÉ Riesling Alsace Les Calcaires Jaunes 2016

WS review : Finely meshed, this subtle, light-to-medium-bodied white weaves mouthwatering acidity with notes of Honeycrisp apple, pickled ginger, star fruit and mineral smoke and stone that linger on the finish. Drink now through 2023. - A.N

Why it's of Note : Now with its 12th generation of winemakers at the helm, Thomas and Véronique, the Muré family has a long history of winemaking in Alsace. In 1999, the estate's 62 acres of vines were converted to organic viticulture, and the team has since employed additional biodynamic practices. Muré's wines are fermented in neutral oak and aged on their lees in stainless steel. The results are balanced, fresh examples, like this distinctly mineral and expressive Riesling.

Par Collin Dreizen